

Botanical Name:	Juniperus virginiana L (joo-NIP-er-us Ver -jin-ih-AY-nah)
Common Name(s):	Eastern redcedar, Red Juniper
Height:	40' – 60'
Form, Branches, Twigs:	Narrow, compact columnar crown, lower branches may droop. Reddish brown bark that is thin, fibrous and shreddy
Fruit/Seeds:	Blue/green berry like fruit;-pollen cones are on another tree
Leaves:	Dark evergreen scale like leaves with a gland dot are opposite in four rows forming slender 4-angled twigs that are 1/16" – 3/8" long on leaders.
Habitat:	Ranges from dry limestone uplands to flood plains and swamps

Notes _____
