

Botanical name:	Quercus stellata	(KWERK us stell AY tuh)
Common Name(s):	Post Oak
Height:	40' -60'
Form, branches, twigs:	Rounded crown in open areas. Light gray, soft platy, blocky bark
Fruit/Seed:	Acorns are often paired (1" long)
Leaf:	Leaf is 4"-8" long with alternate, simple leaves with 3-7 broad (middle lobes are the largest) lobes with a wedged shaped base.
Habitat:	Sun, range of soils (even poor) drought tolerant

Notes _____
