

- Botanical Name: Acer saccharum Marsh. (A ser sak KAR um)
- Common Name(s): Sugar, Hard or Rock Maple
- Height: 70-100' by 2-3'
- Form, Branches, Twigs: Dense crown has an upright oval to rounded habit (young trees pyramidal with smooth gray brown bark) Older bark has long deeply furrowed narrow scaly ridge...however bark is extremely variable. Twigs are slender and greenish brown to gray.
- Fruits/Seeds: Hairless samara (1.75")--September/October. Wings are almost parallel
- Leaves: Simple 3-6" opposite leaves with 3-5 lobes with a slightly coarse toothed margin with narrow deep sinuses
- Habitat: TN is southern edge of its habitat. Prefers moist uplands and valley soils

Notes _____

_____

_____

_____

_____